

„pro(e)quality“ Slovak DP

1st December, 2005 in Berlin

Slovak team (in Berlin):

Zuzana Kiczková – GSC project coordinator

Daniela Drobná – project manager

Jana Viteková – trainer and consultant

Barbora Kachničová – national TNC coordiantor

„Creation of an educational conceptual framework in the field of equal opportunities based on Gender Mainstreaming (GM)“

Project duration:

1st March 2005 – 31st March 2008

Slovak partners:

- Gender Studies Centre, at the Faculty of Arts, Comenius University
- Human Studies Institute, Pedagogical Faculty, Comenius University
- Academy of fine Arts and Design
+ Regional partners

Project overall objectives

- to SUPPORT gender sensibility of university students, decision makers and a group of young unemployed in the region of Slovakia
- to CREATE skills within exercising the methods of GM
- to WORK OUT educational and training modules taking into account the real situation of gender relations and gender stereotypes based on gender analysis
- to INCREASE the equality rate of chances for women and men in the job market

Main project activities:

- Preparation of modules
- Research + results
- Comparison
- Comparison
- Preparation of educational modules
- Educational modules at universities
- Winter/Summer schools
- Training and workshops
 - For decision-makers
 - For young unemployed

T
N
C

Products + Final conference

Main focus within TNC:

Gender Training and

Gender Mainstreaming training for decision-makers in companies

Related national product:

Development of training curricula of Gender Training

for managers in decision-making (HR managers) in the region of Middle Slovakia

- incl. elements of Gender Mainstreaming training.